

Margo Lacure, who has been an administrative intern at Marion Elementary School since September 2019, was unanimously appointed the new Assistant Principal at Kelley School by the Newark Central School District Board of Education November 18th.

Lacure, of Fairport, who also has served as the MCSD's elementary school MTSS (multi-tiered system of supports) Coordinator since September 2019, will join the administrative team of Principal Jeff Hamelinck and Sara McLean, Newark Central School District Committee on Special Education Chairperson, who is functioning part-time this year as an Administrative Intern at Kelley.

Lacure, who will begin working at Kelley December 10th, is very excited about her new job.

"I am so excited to begin as the Kelley School Assistant Principal," she said. "I look forward to collaborating, creating and growing with students and staff everyday as we strive to reach our vision."

"We are very much looking forward to having Margo join our team," Hamelinck said. "As our interview committee can attest, Margo has many gifts and talents that she will bring to Kelley School. Her depth of MTSS knowledge, background as an ENL teacher, passion for every student to succeed and sense of fun will help us live our vision of becoming the best version of ourselves by building lasting connections through collaboration, critical thinking and creativity."

Lacure, who also has worked since May 2014 until present as the K-12 English as a New Language teacher for the MCSD, received her Bachelor's degree in history from SUNY Geneseo; her Master's degree in Teaching English To Speakers Of Other Languages from Canisius College; and her Administrative Certificate from the University of Rochester in 2020.

Margo Lacure

Is New Kelley School Assistant Principal

