

Mastin Will Be Director of Physical Education, Health and Athletics For the Newark Central School District August 1st

The Newark Board of Education July 13th approved the hiring of Jonathan Mastin, Director Health, Physical Education and Athletics and Dean of Students for the Bloomfield Middle/High School to become the new Director of Physical Education, Health and Athletics for the Newark Central School District.

Effective August 1st, he will be filling the vacancy created by Chris Corey who became the Director of Physical Education and Health for the Rochester City School District July 5th.

“As the new Director of Physical Education, Health and Athletics, Jon will need to address many of the suggestions highlighted in both the PE and the Athletic audits done during this last school year in our district. After a very rigorous vetting process, I believe we have the right person at the helm to continue moving our Athletic Program forward. His vast experience makes him the ideal candidate to come in and hit the ground running,” said Superintendent Susan Hasenauer.

“I am thrilled to be joining the Newark Central School District team and am extremely grateful to Superintendent Hasenauer and the Board of Education for appointing me to the position of Director of Health, Physical Education and Athletics,” Mastin said. “I am very much looking forward to working with such a collaborative, passionate and proud group of students, families, teachers and coaches. I cannot wait to get started. Go Reds!”

Mastin began working as a Physical Education and Health teacher at Bloomfield Middle/High School in 2003. In 2015, he became Director of Health, PE and Athletics for the Bloomfield Central School District and in 2017, he took on the additional duties as Dean of Students at the Middle/High School.

He received his Bachelor’s Degree in Physical Education; his Master’s Degree in Physical Education with a concentration in athletic administration; and his Certificate of Advanced Study all from SUNY Brockport.

Mastin and his wife, Arika , a graphic designer, live in Farmington with their two sons, J.J., 13, and Greyson, 10.
