

New Newark Central School District Board Of Education Officers Elected July 13th

Julie Nevelizer and Brad Steve

Brad Steve, who has just begun serving his fifth consecutive year on the Newark Central School District Board of Education, was elected President of the BOE for the 2022-23 school year at the annual reorganizational meeting July 13th. Steve won his first, three-year term on the BOE in 2018 and won the two remaining years of a vacant term in 2021. Julie Nevelizer, who won her first three-year term on the BOE in 2021, was elected Vice President.

Scenes from the Reorganizational meeting:
Top left: BOE President Brad Steve holds the gavel for the first time; top right: Vice President Julie Nevelizer signs the BOE oath; bottom left: newly elected BOE members Mary Thoms and right, Miranda Brooks-Ruggeri sign their oaths as District Clerk Ed Gnau watches.

Thanks to Superintendent Susan Hasenauer for providing photos from the meeting!