

The Newark Athletic Hall of Fame is proud to announce the second induction class of athletes, coaches, and supporters of Newark athletics.

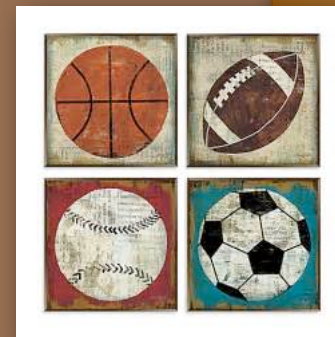

The highest honor bestowed upon a Newark Red, this second group, selected by the Newark Hall of Fame committee made up of community members and active and retired coaches, joins last year's highly decorated inaugural class.

The inductees of the second class of the Newark Athletic Hall of Fame are:

- Ron Ceravolo – Newark Basketball Coach – Class of 1967
- Lenny “Rock” Colavito – Football Coach from 1973 to 1994
- Ralph Nash – Athlete – Class of 1969
- 1990-1991 Newark Boys Basketball Team
- LaTanya Parker – Athlete – Class of 1999
- Charlie Ross – Contributor, Sports Writer – 1950’s, 60’s, 70’s and 80’s
- Tim Tanea – Athlete and Coach – Class of 1975
- Mychal Wilkes – Athlete – Class of 2003

“This list of seven individuals and one team all reached the highest levels of their sports and professions as part of the Newark athletic community. This group embodies the spirit of Newark athletics and the expertise, determination, and flat-out talent that has existed in this community for 100 years,” said Chris Corey, Director of Health, Physical Education & Athletics for Newark Central School District.

The induction ceremony and dinner will take place Saturday, November 18th at 6:00 p.m. at the Newark Garden Inn. Tickets are $30 and can be obtained by contacting the Newark CSD Athletic Office at 332-3241 or the Alex Eligh Community Center at 331-2532.

SECOND
NEWARK
ATHLETIC
HALL OF FAME
CLASS
INDUCTION
NOVEMBER 18TH