

Two Live Concerts Planned AT NHS In June

Here's some great news that should put a song in the hearts of those who enjoy seeing Newark High School instrumental and vocal musicians perform.

Two live concerts, the first this school year, are planned in June to showcase the talents of these students.

Because of COVID restrictions, the NHS Concert Band and Jazz Band, directed by NHS Instrumental Music teacher Robert Humphrey will perform in an outdoor concert June 3rd at 7 p.m. in front of the main entrance of the school.

Each performer is being given two tickets for parents or others to use to attend.

The rain date for the event is June 7th.

Likewise, the NHS Choir and Vocal Jazz groups, directed by NHS Vocal Music teacher Kate Flock, will perform in an outdoor concert in the same location June 8 at 7 p.m.. The rain date is June 9th.

Performers will each be given two tickets to be given to parents or others who want to attend the vocal music concert.

Total attendance at both concerts will be limited to 200 people.

Admission to both events is free.

